Pen of Inspiration God Will Answer, if We Ask

Worldly wisdom teaches that prayer is not essential. Men of science claim that there can be no real answer to prayer; that this would be a violation of law, a miracle, and that miracles have no existence...

Were not miracles wrought by Christ and His apostles? The same compassionate Saviour lives today, and He is as willing to listen to the prayer of faith as when He walked visibly among men. The natural cooperates with the supernatural. It is a part of God's plan to grant us, in answer to the prayer of faith, that which He would not bestow did we not thus ask.

E.G. White : The Great Controversy pg 525

Jesus does not call on us to follow Him, and then forsake us. If we surrender our lives to His service, we can never be placed in a position for which God has not made provision. Whatever may be our situation, we have a Guide to direct our way; whatever our perplexities, we have a sure Counselor; whatever our sorrow, bereavement, or loneliness, we have a sympathizing Friend. If in our ignorance we make mis-steps, Christ does not leave us....

"All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Matthew 21:22

MANCHESTER SOUTH

7th April 2018

SEVENTH-DAY
ADVENTIST CHURCH

What's on God's Mind When we Pray?

"He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also..."

Reverence My Sanctuary

True reverence for God is inspired by a sense of His infinite greatness and a realisation of His presence. With this sense of the Unseen, every heart should be deeply impressed. The hour and place of prayer are sacred, because God is there. And as reverence is manifested in attitude and demeanour, the feeling that inspires it will be deepened. "Prophets and Kings" pg 48, 49.
