Pen of Inspiration

Christianity was founded by a carpenter who communicated effectively with "common people"; fishermen, a tax agent, a medical doctor, and a teacher were among its earliest exponents. But history demonstrates that Christianity offers intellectual challenges to all humans, from the unlearned to the highly educated.

Seventh-day Adventists accept the Bible as their only creed, according to their Fundamental Beliefs. Therefore, only Scripture in its entirety expresses Adventist identity.

Seventh-day Adventists realize that God has a special plan for the church in general and every member in particular. They are familiar with four distinctively unique and essentially inherent characteristics that Apostle Peter uses to describe God's people:

"But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light" (1 Pet 2:9).

Addressing the crucial issue of Adventist identity is not a simple task, nor is it an easy one. The process is imperative, however, if the church is to nurture its members effectively and witness to its world coherently in Century 21.

MANCHESTER SOUTH

24th March 2018

Youth Week of Prayer - Youth Day

Finding Our True Identity in Christ

Reverence My Sanctuary

True reverence for God is inspired by a sense of His infinite greatness and a realisation of His presence. With this sense of the Unseen, every heart should be deeply impressed. The hour and place of prayer are sacred, because God is there. And as reverence is manifested in attitude and demeanour, the feeling that inspires it will be deepened.
