Pen of Inspiration

Then were there brought unto him little children that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them. Matthew 19:13-15. Children are the Lord's heritage. The soul of the little child that believes in Christ is as precious in His sight as are the angels about His throne. They are to be brought to Christ, and trained for Christ. They are to be guided in the path of obedience, not indulged in appetite or vanity. When the disciples sought to send away the mothers who were bringing their little ones to Christ, He rebuked their narrow faith, saying, "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven." He was grieved that the disciples should rebuke the mothers for bringing their children to Him; that His followers should say, by word or action, that His grace was limited, and that children should be kept away from Him.... A great responsibility rests upon parents, for the education and training, which shape the eternal destiny of children, and youth are received in their early childhood. The parents' work is to sow the good seed diligently and untiringly in the hearts of their children, occupying their hearts with seed, which will bring forth a harvest of right habits, of truthfulness and willing obedience.

MANCHESTER SOUTH

2nd June 2018

Reverence My Sanctuary

True reverence for God is inspired by a sense of His infinite greatness and a realisation of His presence. With this sense of the Unseen, every heart should be deeply impressed. The hour and place of prayer are sacred, because God is there. And as reverence is manifested in attitude and demeanour, the feeling that inspires it will be deepened. "Prophets and Kings" pg 48, 49.

SANCTUARY CLOSURE: As an act of reverence and security, the Sanctuary will be closed 15 minutes after the Divine Service benediction each week. This will be enforced by the Elders and the Deaconette, and members are asked to cooperate to ensure that this is achieved each week. Thank You.
